However, in some districts it is feared the future prospects are jeopardized by the badness of the seed wheat, really good samples of which are exceedingly scarce. The operations in Scotland are more backward. If the weather remains propitious another fortnight a fair area will be sown. The haryest is now completed in the later districts of Scotland, but the results are unsatisfac-tory. In England the home crop is arriving more freely at the country markets, but its condition continues satisfactory. The pro-vincial trade was dull. Wheat declined a chilling a quarter in many important ceners. In London the import of foreign wheat is annusually heavy, the supplies from Monday to Friday being 8272 quarters. A large proportion of the imports were from Russia, and these may be yet prolonged if the weather is mild, as no definite news of the closing of the Baltic ports has been received. The future source of prices, however, depends on the action of America alone. The gigantic visible supply fetters trade. Of course, the large imports now arriving are considerably in excess of present requirement, but, notwithstanding the surface fluctuations, the outleok is decidedly hopeful. The stoppage of Russian supplies may very probably turn the scale in seilers' favor. Very little business as a ned declined about one shilling. The arrivals at ports of call have been moderate. There was a fair gennand for the first houses there. The occupants fied, and a thief, attempting to enter one, was speedily nabbed and hustled off to the police station. The firemen gave their attention entirely now to the surrounding property, the stables being in a mass of ruins. By ten o'clock all danger of the spread of the fire was over, and a number of the engines were sent to their quarters. The others remain, pouring water upon the dying flames. The loss is estimated at about two hundred and seventy thousand dollars; insur ance, two hundred and seventy thousand dollars.

EX GOVERNOR STANARD. The subject of the District of Columbia commissionership, which will become vacant by the resignation of Captain Phelps, on the first prexime, was mentioned to-day, but no action taken. The fact was developed that Ex-Mayor Emery is strongly supported for the appointment, and that his name is among those which the President is seriously considering. General Halbert E. Paine, whom the President intended to appoint to this postwas then called upon and made a little country; her outlets to other markets, east and south, and to foreign ports; and finally drawing the gentleman's attention to the great advantage the Mississippi river afforded for cheap transportation to the sea, proper efforts were made in that direction.

> The call then terminated and all seemed be much pleased with the result. Mr. fould's allusion to the river as a means of ransportation leads business men to believe that he is much interested in the matter and that the plan talked of, and partially organ-ized sometime ago by the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern railroad company, of building a number of towboats and barges between here and New Orleans, will be car-ried out in the near future. Mr. Gould has made a careful examination of the Missouri property and expresses himself surprised at its extent and value, and is much pleased with his purchase. He will take a daylight trip over the road to Kansas City to-morrow and from there will go to Omaha,
